

Christine Blakney--Biography

Christine Blakney is the Managing Director of Student Business Services at Texas Tech University. She is a CPA and holds a Master's of Science in Accounting awarded by Texas Tech in 1992.

Christy has worked in Higher Education since September of 2003 when she was hired as the Associate Director of Accounting Services for the TTU Health Sciences Center in Lubbock, TX. She was promoted to Managing Director of that department in 2007. She accepted her current Bursar role at the academic campus in 2009 and also teaches at the university.

Prior to working in higher education, Christy worked in corporate accounting roles in the communications, agriculture, healthcare and marketing industries. She currently serves as the Chair of the NACUBO Student Financial Services committee. She has two girls in college (one about to graduate from TTU) and a son in 5th grade, each of whom takes plenty of her time and salary.
