

Belva D. White, CPA, MBA
Vice President for Finance & Treasury
Emory University

Belva joined Emory University in 2002 and has experience in both central administration and academic unit leadership. During her career at Emory, she has served as University Controller, PeopleSoft Financials Upgrade Business Lead and the University AVP for Finance Systems and Data Analytics. Expanding beyond the numbers, she served as the Chief Business, Analytics and Operations Officer for Emory's Goizueta Business School and had oversight of financial planning, technology, facilities and business analytics. Currently, Belva serves as the Vice President for Finance & Treasury for Emory. In all roles, she has maintained a focus on process improvements, healthy change management and the evolution of higher education business practices to support faculty and students.

A Certified Public Accountant, Belva earned her B.S. in Accounting from Clemson University and an MBA from Emory University's Goizueta Business School.

Belva is a past-chair of the NACUBO Accounting Principles Council, a current member of the NACUBO Analytics Advisory Group and serves on the program committee for the annual NACUBO Integrated Analytics Forum. In her spare time, she is an avid tennis player and cyclist.

Guiding Quote for Every Day in the Office: "Making those decisions correctly becomes simple when we remind ourselves who we are and why we exist." – Roberto C. Goizueta, March 17, 1994 speech to the Atlanta Commerce Club
