

Arnim E. Dantes, MBA- Biography

Arnim E. Dantes, MBA, is the Executive Vice President for Business Affairs at UT Southwestern Medical Center. He has been with UT Southwestern Medical Center since 2011. As the Medical Center's chief business officer, Mr. Dantes directs the activities of more than 15 business and service-related departments across campus, including Accounting, Budget & Resource Planning, Contracts Management, Facilities Management, Financial Affairs, General Services, Human Resources, Information Resources, Safety and Business Continuity, Sponsored Programs Administration, Supply Chain Management, and the University's Police Department, among others. Previously, Mr. Dantes served more than 20 years at the University of Illinois' College of Medicine - Illinois' flagship medical school - most recently as the Vice Dean for Administration, where he had financial and operational responsibility for its 30 basic science and clinical units. Mr. Dantes holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois, Champaign, and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Illinois at Chicago. He was the National Chair-Elect, Chair, and Immediate Past Chair for the Association of American Medical Colleges' Group on Business Affairs between 2011 and 2014.