

Alicia Currin – Biography

Alicia Currin is a senior administrator at Texas A&M University-Commerce with more than 36 years of experience in Higher Education and for the past 4 years has served as CFO and Vice President for Business & Administration overseeing accounting, budget, human resources, purchasing, safety & risk management, information technology, university police department, and facilities management.

Alicia previously served as Chief of Staff & Director of Governmental Relations & Planning for 2 years, assisting the president with various administrative functions.

Prior to this, she served for 30 years in the business and administration division in various roles including budget officer and comptroller.

Alicia graduated with a Bachelor degree in Business Administration from Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Alicia also has served as chair of the Athletic Council for the past 8 years.