

Calvin D. Jamison, Ed.D.

Dr. Calvin D. Jamison serves as Vice President for Facilities and Economic Development at The University of Texas at Dallas (UT Dallas). During a time of tremendous growth for the University where enrollment has increased from 14,000 to over 28,000 in the last decade, he continues to lead $1.5 billion in development and the addition of 11.5 million new and renovated square feet to the campus, including a mixed-use development called Northside, or “Comet Town.”

Dr. Jamison is also a clinical professor in the School of Economic, Political and Policy Sciences and received the 2013 UT Dallas Staff Diversity Award. An avid golfer, his office sponsors the Annual UT Dallas Scholarship Golf Tournament that has produced an $800,000 endowment, which provides supplemental financial support for undergraduate and graduate students through the three scholarship endowments it supports.

Prior to his appointment at UT Dallas, Dr. Jamison served as senior vice president and chief administrative officer at Hampton University. He also previously served as chief executive officer/city manager of Richmond, Va., where he oversaw almost $4 billion in new development with a $1.4 billion budget and 4,500 employees, held faculty and administrative positions at Virginia Commonwealth University and Virginia Tech, and worked in the private sector with the Ethyl Corporation.

Dr. Jamison is a member of the NFBPA National Board of Directors where he serves as the Second Vice President, and is a member of the Executive Committee. Previously, he has served as chair of the Financial Committee, Strategic Planning Committee and chair of the Annual Leadership Dinner. In 2015, he was selected as the recipient of the NFBPA Marks of Excellence Award.

Dr. Jamison is the President of the Texas Association of State Senior College and University Business Officers (TASSCUBO) and is a member of the National Association of College and University Business Officers, and the Research Universities Council. He has served as a past president of the Richmond Arts Council, past chair Leadership Metro Richmond and past chair of the Virginia Tourism Corporation Board of Directors, where he received their Man of Vision Award. In 2006, he received a Distinguished Alumni Service Award from Virginia Tech, and, in 2008, he was appointed to the Board of Visitors of Virginia Tech by the Governor of Virginia. He holds bachelor’s, master’s and doctorate degrees from Virginia Tech.
